(11th Cir.1983). Review is limited to the question of whether the district court's findings are clearly erroneous or whether its application of law to the facts is erroneous. See Nobles v. Johnson, 127 F.3d 409, 419 (5th Cir.1997). 20 After reviewing the record in this case and addressing the errors committed at the sentencing and plea bargaining stages, we find no abuse of discretion in the district court's granting of the writ. The district court emphasized the fact that Nixon had not shown that he would have had any useful information to give to the authorities. We agree that the district court's characterization of the evidence that Nixon would have provided is more than reasonable under the circumstances. 21 The district judge adequately warned Nixon
