3.. I am glad to see you reached out and responded quickly. I have had a similar problem and found the solution to be the VLC player. It does not let you load.wmv or.mp4 files, but it will let you load.avi.mkv,.mp4,.mov,.3gp,.etc files. It comes with a.exe version or you can get other versions to do the same.exe file. Here is a link to the VLC player website. 4. The solution to getting your photos to work with Photoshop is by using a free program called "Aperture 3." It runs on the Mac, and it is an editor for photos. It is simple to use, and it even lets you process the photos online without a program. If you don't already have Photoshop, go here for an intro to Photoshop: Before you install anything, please make sure you backup your photos. Good Luck to you!
