Comments Super Mario 3D All-Stars is the unofficial sequel to Super Mario 64 which was released for the Wii U eShop on July 11, 2014 as a free download. This game is a collection of ROM hacks, skins and a quality remaster of the original Super Mario Bros. game from 1984.
The game is similar to the recent remake of Super Mario 64 called Super Mario 64 3D World. Several characters from other Mario games return. It includes all of the original games character sprites and music.
In addition to the five games from the original Super Mario Bros series, there are three Mario Kart Nintendo 64 games: Mario Kart: Double Dash!!, Mario Kart: Super Circuit and

Mario Kart DS. The game includes access to the Super Mario 64 3D World online website, where players can post their own levels and see other people's levels. Super Mario 3D All-Stars is the first game with a "True" ISO image, requiring the player to extract the ISO file into their Wii U SD card before playing the game. The game is the first game in the series to use the ISO format for the Nintendo 3DS, Wii U and Wii U eShop, and is the first to support the Nintendo DS. Contents show] Description An international team of hackers have taken on the challenge to remake several old Mario 64 ROM hacks into a similar game but with 3D models and a new hyper-realistic world, including new
