Too much glittery loitering and too little martial arts. However, this isn't just another one-shot B-movie. FRESHRob... it's just great. This film, despite its sheer budget, looks like a super hit and is a real gem. And not just because it shows how you can create your own combat system. He also explores the issue of leadership. What you see in this film is that you must work with a leader who can accept and understand your vision. And the film also gives us something like an idea of what is in life. Think about what you want and how you see yourself moving forward.
